The way he rubs his beard when he's stressed.

The way he chews on the end of his pen.

The way his eyes crinkle up when he smiles.

The way he waves his arms around when he talks.

The way he tucks his hair behind his ears.

The way he pushes his glasses on top of his head.

The way he grins like a child just before he says something funny.

The way he taps his fingers when he's thinking.

The way he whispers 'Tay' in my ear.

It's all these little things he does that make me love him.
